

Shire President's Message

volunteers benefit from this program and I'm happy to see the continuation of this successful club development scheme.

Manjimup Home and Community Care 30th Anniversary

On 7 December 2018 Manjimup Home and Community Care are celebrating 30 years of service to the community with a dance party. What a fabulous achievement, the team past and present should feel proud of all they have accomplished for the community. From very humble beginnings this service has flourished and grown to be an award winning entity with a brand new multi-function wellness and respite centre.

Regulated Burning

We are now in the regulated burning period. I strongly urge all landholders to adhere to the regulated times, to prepare your bushfire plan and to comply with the recent Fire Break and Fuel Hazard Reduction Notice.

Festive Season

The festive season is upon us again and I wish all residents and visitors fun, laughter and happiness throughout the holiday period and always.

The program will receive $15,000 grant funding in 2018/19 and a further $10,000 in 2019/20. It will be wonderful to see our local clubs and their tireless
